OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Saturday - 13 May 1967

25X1 1. [ ] Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director, Senate National Security and International Operations Subcommittee, called requesting a background paper on the Middle East with particular focus on the nature of Soviet maneuvering. This must be in Miss Fosdick's hands by 11:00 a.m. Monday morning in order for her to work it over and have it ready for Senator Jackson. Miss Fosdick said this is in connection with the 25X1 Senator's interest in making a speech on the Middle East possibly on Tuesday.
[ ] of DDI, said OCI will pull a background paper together and said he would also be in touch with Mr. Critchfield on the possibility of contributing to this effort.

25X1 2. [ ] [ ] CA Staff, called to 25X1 confirm that it was Congressman Alexander Pirnie (R., N.Y.) who may have prompted the 23 February 1967 inquiry by the House Office of the Coordinator of Information on the relationship between a nonprofit organization and the Agency.
